SDPD GANG DETECTIVES AND PATROL OFFICERS CONDUCT OPERATION "FULL COURT PRESS"

(San Diego) Street Gang Unit Investigators along with Gang Suppression Team and patrol officers from Western, Mid City, Central, Eastern, Traffic (including Motors) and Southeastern Divisions conducted an operation to suppress gang crime citywide between Friday, November 2, and Sunday, November 4, 2007. Investigators from the SD County District Attorney's office, and State Parole and Probation officers were part of this effort as well. This enforcement action was intended to suppress recent acts of violence among several different gang sets. The sweep was deemed successful, as there were no reported acts of violence committed by members of these groups. The sweep yielded the following results:

Arrests (felony)	44
Arrests (misdemeanor)	9
Field Interviews	425
Firearms recovered	4 (including a sawed off shotgun)

The following drugs were recovered during this operation: methamphetamine, cocaine, heroin, marijuana and Ecstasy.
